Question:

Is it Possible to Have a Cocktail Reception? If So, What Types Of Foods Would You Serve?

Answer:

A cocktail reception for a wedding is more casual than a regular reception. It is usually less expensive since less food is served, fewer decorations are needed, less staff is hired and fewer rentals are ordered. Popular food choices are cold and hot hors d'oeuvres. Just a few choices are Chicken or Beef Satay, Mini... continue reading >>

Question:

My Parents are Divorced and do not get Along Very Well. I am Very Close to Both of Them and Want to Know Where Should They sit During the Wedding Ceremony?

Answer:

Sometimes seating divorced parents can be very tricky because you do not want to offend either one. Happily, tradition has already mapped out proper etiquette for circumstances like these. Your mother should sit in the front pew on the left. If she has remarried, her husband and her close family members will sit with her. Your father... continue reading >>
